hello,

I'm a creative and detail-oriented designer and communicator pursuing a double major in Communication, Culture, Information & Technology and Psychology at the University of Toronto Mississauga. Experienced in creating print and digital designs for educational and community initiatives. Adept at maintaining brand identity, ensuring visual consistency, and delivering clean, clutter-free layouts under short deadlines. Skilled at managing multiple design projects simultaneously, implementing revisions efficiently, and producing visually compelling materials that support clear communication and learning.
